

Please do not change the Indiana law back. I have been able to successfully eat dinner with my children without being interrupted and we are able to have conversations without being interrupted.